

Thoughts about your Gray Scarf with Three Shields

The Scarf program is meant to challenge you to grow into the best person you can be in all areas of your life. All members of the Scarf Society progress through the colors by thoughtfully and prayerfully choosing to accept the challenge for which they are ready.

Requirements for the Gray Scarf with Three Shields:

You may choose to accept the challenge of the Gray Scarf with Three Shields if you already received the Gray Scarf with Two Shields and you are under 12 years old.

The challenge of the Gray Scarf with Three Shields: to be a good citizen, helpful camper, a true friend, a good example to others, and accept some responsibility to be a leader.

As you prepare to accept the challenge of the Gray Scarf with Three Shields we would like you to think about some of the words to the following songs:

The Gray Scarf Anthem

Let me be a little blinder
To the faults of those around me.
Let me praise a little more.
Let me be a little meeker
To the people who are weaker.
Think a little more of others
And a little less of me.

Thank You, God

Thank you, God, for this day
In which to grow,
For wondrous things, which
When this day is done, I shall know,
For each new fact
That I shall meet this day,
And for the lessons I shall learn
From all who come my way.

Circle the words in these songs that help you understand the challenge of the Gray Scarf with Three Shields.

Think about the following questions, and write down your ideas in the space below so you don't forget them before your talk with your counselor and the scheduled Scarf discussion meeting.

- What have you done in the last year to be a good citizen, a helpful camper, a true friend, and a good example to others? (Gray Scarf with Two Shields challenge)
- Can you give an example of a leader who you can admire?
- Being a good leader means taking good care of yourself and others around you. Can you give three examples of how you can take care of yourself at camp?
- Give three examples of ways you can take care of others at camp.
- Can you think of something you would like to learn at camp this summer?
